Book Synopsis

Healthcare Beyond Reform "Healthcare is the biggest sector of the U.S. economy and the most dysfunctional. In 2010 we spent $2.6 trillion on healthcare in the U.S. We will waste at least 30 percent of that, about $780 billion -- eight times what it would take to cover every American. In Healthcare Beyond Reform: Doing It Right for Half the Cost, Joe Flower, a well respected healthcare futurist and industry thought leader, Full description
